

Healing Reins 2022-2023 Horsemanship Lesson Fees Policy

Tuition Fees

Payment for services is due prior to services provided.

All participants will be invoiced around the 20th of each month and payments will be due and payable by the 5st of the following month. Your invoice will reflect a monthly fee based on the day of the week you ride and your total annual lessons averaged over the course of the next 12 months. Your tuition rate has already taken into account any dates on the calendar that Healing Reins has planned to cancel for holidays, special events and training. This frees us from the large monthly administrative burden of different monthly tuition for each day of the week for 160 participants. Plus, it allows participants to plan their budget.

Because Healing Reins offers equine assisted services to all our participants at a rate significantly lower than our actual cost, we respectfully request you pay your bill on time every month, so we can continue to provide these services to everyone. Outstanding balances that aren't paid by the next month's billing cycle can lead to cancellation of services until paid in full. If you are experiencing financial difficulties, please reach out to Candace Martin.

Finally, if Healing Reins adds a canceled date to the calendar, or has to cancel for weather or other reasons, participants will be reimbursed the per-lesson cost they are paying (those on scholarship are not reimbursed).

Payment Options

Remember, we have options for automatic credit card withdrawal, which is quick and easy, or "click to pay" service through your monthly emailed tuition invoice. Checks and cash are also accepted in the tuition drop box located in the barn.
